DENIS LE SQUER:
THE NEW MANAGING DIRECTOR
OF FONDATION POUR L’AUDITION

Paris, May 19, 2020 – On June 15, Denis Le Squer will join Fondation Pour l’Audition, a French public-interest organization established by the Bettencourt-Meyers family and chaired by Jean-Pierre Meyers, to become its new Managing Director.

He will take over from Benoît Péricard.

In this role, he will pursue Fondation Pour l’Audition’s development with public and private partners in fundamental and clinical research, as well as in its social and cultural dimensions, to improve care for people with hearing loss and promoting preventative action.

A 50-year-old graduate of ISG management school, Mr. Le Squer has a 20-yearstrack record at Fondation pour la Recherche Médicale (FRM), where he became Chair of the Executive Board in 2006. Earlier, he started his career at Aides, a French non-profit organization, and as a financial controller in the pharmaceutical sector.

About Fondation Pour l’Audition

Fondation Pour l’Audition was created by Françoise Bettencourt Meyers, Jean-Pierre Meyers and the Bettencourt Schueller Foundation. It has been recognized as a public-interest organization since 2015. The Foundation’s ambition is to unite talents to promote hearing health and improve the lives of people with hearing loss. Its mission is three-fold: supporting research and innovation to offer new hope; mobilizing public opinion to protect hearing health through prevention and awareness initiatives; and improving the lives of people with hearing loss.

For more information, please visit: http://www.fondationpourlaudition.org

Media Contact - Fondation Pour l’Audition
Agathe Coustaux – Director, Communications and Development
Phone: + 33 6 14 38 79 63 – agathe.coustaux@pourlaudition.org